An Introduction

My name is Vyom Gupta and I am a graduate from Gateway College Of Architecture and Design. My interest in architecture originates from my desire to know the world, people and the different ways in which we inhabit spaces.

I am often inspired by the unusual and I quite often draw inspiration from my make-believe world of fantasies. Places of these worlds reveal themselves in some of my projects in both architectural and personal.

To Conclude

"I know there is a black hole behind me" standing for my acceptance of regret and I am ready to move forward.
