Hi :)

I'm Min, an experienced Architect with a Master of Science in Architecture & Building Sciences from the Delft University of Technology with Cum laude distinction and a Bachelor of Architecture from Kasetsart University with first-class honors, has provided me with a robust foundation in architectural principles and design excellence.

From experiencing both academic and professional fields, offering self-awareness as a diligent worker, open-minded and fast learner, highly organized architect, and eager to design various building scales and types and an open-minded approach to design challenges.
