

Hi, I'm Joy

I have been working as an interior designer for 1 year, so far i've learnt many new experiences and new daily tasks. I constantly want to keep growing professionally. Personally, I am able to adapt quickly to environment and to grasp new knowledge and experiences, eager to learn, passionate and responsible person. Other than being an interior designer, I have many other skills especially in speaking english, I am very confident in communicating and presenting my work in english.
